ARTICLE #9:

To see if the Town will vote to amend the Dracut Zoning By-Laws by adding a new section as follows:

4.17.00 Dracut Center Neighborhood Overlay District

1. Purpose: The Dracut Center Neighborhood Overlay District (DCNOD) Bylaw is meant to encourage development that enhances the current mix of uses located within the Center, protects historic resources, helps create a sense of place, and that promotes future economic development opportunities within the Center area. The purposes of the Dracut Center Neighborhood Overlay District (DCNOD) are to:

ANNUAL TOWN MEETING
TOWN OF DRACUT
NOVEMBER 4, 2013

- Encourage a mix of business, residential, cultural, educational and civic uses;
- Promote compact development that is pedestrian-oriented and preserves the historic value and character of the area;
- Minimize impacts on public services and maximize the efficient use of public infrastructure;
- Increase the town's tax base by creating a thriving small business environment, attracting new investment and promoting economic development; and
- Encourage the reuse of existing underutilized or vacant properties.

The following bylaw is intended to support the goals, objectives and recommendations outlined in the Town's Master Plan. Applications submitted under the DCNOD bylaw should meet the criteria outlined in the corresponding Dracut Center Neighborhood Design Guidelines. A copy of the Dracut Center Neighborhood Design Guidelines may be obtained by contacting the Dracut Town Clerk or the Planning Board Office.

2. Definitions. The following definitions shall apply in the DCNOD:

“Mixed-Use Development”: A single building with the ground floor used primarily for retail, commercial, service or office and the upper floor(s) used for residential use.

“Assisted Living Facility”: An establishment that furnishes, in one or more facilities, food and shelter to four or more persons who are unrelated to the proprietor of the establishment; and provides personal care services.

“Art gallery”: An establishment that derives more than fifty per cent (50%) of its Income from the display

“Artist Lofts”: An apartment or studio where an artist works and lives.

“Artist”: A person who is engaged gainfully or as a vocation in the following:

- (a) The fine arts, including but not limited to, painting, printmaking, sculpturing or ceramics;
- (b) The performing and visual arts, including but not limited to, dance, choreography, photography, or filmmaking; or
- (c) The composition of music.

“Bed and Breakfast”: A use providing lodging and meals for guests in not more than five (5) bed rooms on a daily or weekly basis in an operator- or owner- occupied dwelling that is primarily used for this purpose. The use is operated as a commercial enterprise, provides direct bookings from the public, and includes inns that operate restaurants offering meals to overnight guests.

“Lounge or Pub”: A restaurant with a license to serve alcohol that identifies itself as a pub or lounge; may serve spirits or be limited to beer and wine.

“Performance Theater”: A building or structure or part thereof which is devoted primarily for the presentation of live dance, dramatic, musical or comedic performances.

“Museum”: A building or structure devoted to the acquisition, conservation, study, exhibition, and educational interpretation of objects having scientific, historical, or artistic value.

3. Overlay District. The Dracut Center Neighborhood Overlay District (DCNOD) is hereby established and shall be construed as an overlay district. Within the DCNOD all regulations of the underlying district shall continue in full force and effect, except where these regulations supersede such underlying requirements or provide an alternative to such requirements. The DCNOD shall consist exclusively of the following properties:

Boundaries. The boundaries of the DCNOD shall be as shown on the Town of Dracut Zoning Map on file in the office of the Town Clerk, and shall encompass those lots shown on the map designated as lying within the DCNOD district. These lots primarily front Arlington Street and Bridge Street.

- 4. Relationship to Existing Zoning. The underlying zoning shall not be modified, repealed, nor amended by this section. The property owners in the DCNOD shall possess all current zoning rights and be subject to the requirements applicable in the underlying zones. In the event that an owner desires to use his or her property for mixed-use development as defined herein, the rules and regulations of the DCNOD shall apply and by filing an application for development subject to such rules and regulations, the owner shall be deemed to accept and agree to them. Where the DCNOD provisions are silent on a zoning rule or regulation, the requirements of the underlying zoning shall apply (e.g. off-street parking and open space requirements). In addition, projects allowed under the underlying zoning are not eligible to apply under the DCNOD unless they meet the all of the requirements of the DCNOD. To attain the goals of the DCNOD, collaborative development proposals involving more than one property owner are encouraged, where appropriate.

ANNUAL TOWN MEETING
TOWN OF DRACUT
NOVEMBER 4, 2013

ARTICLE #9 (Cont'd):

In such cases, a project master plan must be submitted to the Planning Board with the initial project application, detailing the specific elements of the proposed project, outlining the impacts of the overall project, and identifying the responsibilities of each property owner. The Project Master Plan should describe: the uses proposed, the layout and size of the project, potential impacts to the environment, access and transportation impacts, water and sewer needs, and economic impacts.

5. Use Regulations. The following uses are allowed in the DCNOD subject to the requirements outlined in these DCNOD regulations, and provided that all necessary permits, orders, or approvals required by local, state, or federal law are also obtained:

1. Residential Uses (as a component of a mixed-use development):
 - a. Multifamily
 - b. Two-family
 - c. Artist lofts/studio
 - d. Assisted living facilities
2. Government, Institutional and Public Service Uses:
 - a. Municipal
 - b. Educational
 - c. Religious

ANNUAL TOWN MEETING
TOWN OF DRACUT
NOVEMBER 4, 2013

ARTICLE #9 (Cont'd):

- 7. Dimensional Requirements. Uses and structures within the DCNOD shall conform to the following requirements:

Minimum Lot Area: 22,000 square feet
Minimum Frontage: 75 feet
Minimum Front Yard Setback: 0 feet/10 feet*
Minimum Side Yard Setback: 0 feet
Minimum Side Yard Setback when abutting a residential district: 15 feet
Minimum Rear Setback: 15 feet
Maximum Building Height: 3 stories or 45 feet

*On each lot, there shall be one side yard of at least 10 feet in width. Minimum land area per lot per dwelling unit: 10,000 square feet

*On each lot, there shall be one side yard of at least 10 feet in width.

- 8. Special Provisions. The following special provisions apply to all development within the DCNOD:

- a. The minimum separation between two or more buildings on the same lot shall be 20 feet.
- b. The Planning Board may modify all dimensional requirements outlined in Section 7 above if, in its opinion, such modifications will result in improved design that is in keeping with Section 1 above.
- c. Frontage and Access – The Planning Board may, as part of the special permit, reduce lot frontage for a development that provides consolidated or shared access for two or more adjoining parcels, subject to a legally enforceable agreement or restriction in a form acceptable to the Planning Board and approved by Town Counsel.
- d. Site access must be achieved in a fashion that is acceptable to the Planning Board and by means that does not unreasonably impact residential neighborhoods in that it properly mitigates noise, traffic, visual and environmental impacts attributable to the project.
- e. The Planning Board may allow greater square footage than listed in Section 5 above if, in its opinion, such modifications will result in improved design that is in keeping with Section 1 above.
- f. The Zoning Board of Appeals shall not grant a variance for any use not allowed under Section 5.

- 9. Parking/Bicycle Requirements. The parking requirement for any use in the DCNOD shall be the same as in the underlying zoning classification. The Planning Board may reduce the required number of parking spaces in the DCNOD based on the following considerations:

- a. The parking spaces for one use shall not be considered as providing the required spaces for another use.
- b. The availability of shared parking on another property within 300 feet. The Board may require a shared parking agreement to be submitted as part of the application for development.
- c. Uses within 200 feet of public transportation.

The layout, location and design of parking lots and spaces shall comply with the criteria set forth in the DCNOD Design Guidelines.

ANNUAL TOWN MEETING
TOWN OF DRACUT
NOVEMBER 4, 2013

ARTICLE #9 (Cont'd):

Bicycle parking shall be provided for all new mixed-use development projects. This parking area shall be at least partially sheltered from the elements and shall provide at least three spaces for each business or office use. Bicycle parking areas may be shared as per item b above.

10. Site Plan Special Permit. All uses and structures in the DCNOD are subject to a Special Permit and Site Plan Special Permit from the Planning Board in accordance with Section 1.16.00 of the Zoning Bylaw. In addition to the requirements of these sections, all design criteria of the DCNOD shall apply as described in the Dracut Neighborhood Center Design Guidelines. The Planning Board shall be the Special Permit Granting Authority.

11. Applicant Procedures: The applicant for a Special Permit under this Section shall submit appropriate materials in accordance with this Section of the Bylaw and with Section 1.16.00. Such materials include the following:

- A site plan and site Master Plan, as described in Item 4 above
- An analysis of the consequences of the proposed development at a level of detail appropriate to the scale of the development project. Such an analysis shall assess
- the impact to the natural environment (ground and surface water, stream flows, erosion, vegetation removal and wildlife); impact on public services, traffic, water supply and wastewater; visual impacts; noise and economic impacts.

12. Decision Criteria: A Special Permit under this Section shall be approved upon determination by the Planning Board that the requirements of Section 1.16.00 and this Section have been met, and that the proposed plan is consistent with the stated purposed and guidelines set forth in this section, Or act in any way relative thereto.

ARTICLE #10:

To see if the Town will vote to Amend the Town of Dracut By Laws by adding the following new section as follows:

TOWN OF DRACUT RIGHT TO FARM BYLAW

Section 1 Legislative Purpose and Intent

The purpose and intent of this Bylaw is to state with emphasis the Right to Farm accorded to all citizens of the Commonwealth under Article 97 of the Constitution, and all state statutes and regulations hereunder including but not limited to Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 40A, Section 3, Paragraph 1; Chapter 90, Section 9, Chapter 111, Section 125A and Chapter 128 Section 1A. We the citizens of Dracut restate and republish these rights pursuant to the Town's authority conferred by Article 89 of the Articles of Amendment of the Massachusetts Constitution, ("Home Rule Amendment")

ARTICLE#10 (Cont'd):

The General Bylaw encourages the pursuit of agriculture, promotes agriculture-based economic opportunities and protects farmlands within the Town of Dracut by allowing Agricultural uses and related activities to function with minimal conflict with abutters and local agencies. This Bylaw shall apply to all jurisdictional areas within the town of Dracut.

Section 2 Definitions

The word "Farm" shall include any parcel, contiguous or non contiguous of land, or water bodies used for the primary purpose of commercial agriculture, or accessory thereto.

ANNUAL TOWN MEETING
TOWN OF DRACUT
NOVEMBER 4, 2013

ARTICLE#10 (Cont'd):

The words “Farming or Agriculture” or their derivatives shall include, but not be limited to the following:

- Farming in all its branches and the cultivation and tillage of the soil;
- Dairying;
- Production, cultivation, growing and harvesting of any agricultural, aquacultural, floricultural, viticultural or horticultural commodities;
- Growing and harvesting of forest products upon forest land and any other forestry or lumbering operations;
- Raising of livestock including horses;
- Keeping of horses as a commercial enterprise; and
- Keeping and raising of poultry, swine, cattle, sheep, ratites (such as emus, ostriches and rheas) And camelids (such as llama and camels) and other domesticated animals for food and other agricultural purposes including bees and fur-bearing animals.

“Farming” shall encompass activities including, but not limited to, the following:

- Operation and transportation of slow-moving farm equipment over roads within the Town;
- Control of pests, including, but not limited to, insects, weeds, predators and disease organisms of plants and animals;
- Application of manure, fertilizers and pesticides;
- Conducting agriculture-related educational and farm-based recreational activities, including agri-tourism, provided that the activities are related to marketing the agricultural output or services of the farm;
- Processing and packaging of the agricultural output of the farm and the operation of a farmers market or farm stand including signage thereto;
- Maintenance, repair or storage of seasonal equipment or apparatus owned or leased by the farmer used expressly for the purpose of propagation, processing, management or sale of the agricultural products; and
- On-farm relocation of earth and the clearing of ground for farming operations.

Section 3 Right to Farm Declaration

The right to farm is hereby recognized to exist within the Town of Dracut. The above-described agricultural activities may occur on holidays, weekdays and weekends by night or day and shall include the attendant incidental noise, odor, dust and fumes associated with normally accepted agricultural practices. It is hereby determined that whatever impact may be caused to others through the normal practice of agriculture is more than offset by the benefits of farming to the neighborhood, community and society in general. The benefits and protections of this bylaw are intended to apply exclusively to those commercial agricultural and farming operations and activities conducted in accordance with generally accepted agricultural practices. Moreover, nothing in this Right to Farm Bylaw shall be deemed as acquiring any interest in land or as imposing any land use regulation, which is properly the subject of state statute, regulation or local Zoning law.

Section 4 Disclosure Notification

In order to ensure that prospective owners and prospective tenants are aware of the policy of the Town of Dracut expressed in this Bylaw regarding agricultural uses, the following notification of this policy shall be prominently posted in the Municipal building within 30 days of the Bylaw becoming effective. Copies will also be made available for distribution.

ANNUAL TOWN MEETING
TOWN OF DRACUT
NOVEMBER 4, 2013

ARTICLE#10 (Cont'd):

“This notification is to inform persons and entities who are about to acquire or lease real property within the Town of Dracut that it is the policy of the Town of Dracut to conserve, protect and encourage the maintenance and improvement of the agricultural land, for the production of food and other agricultural products and for the preservation of its natural and ecological value. This notification is to further inform such owners and entities that farming activities, including the raising and keeping of livestock, take place in the Town of Dracut and that such activities may cause or create noise, dust and odors which adversely impact or are incompatible with the use or enjoyment of property within the Town, including the property about to be acquired or leased. Buyers or occupants are also informed that the location of said property within the Town of Dracut may be impacted by commercial agricultural operations including the ability to access water services for such property under certain circumstances.” Prior to the sale or leasing of real property owners should make efforts to inform prospective tenants or buyers that Dracut is a Right to Farm community. In addition, the notification language required by this section shall appear annually in the Town’s Annual report.

Section 5 Resolution of Disputes

Any person who seeks to complain about the operation of a farm may, notwithstanding pursuing any other available remedy, file a grievance with the Board of Selectmen, the Town Manager or the Board of Health, depending upon the nature of the grievance. The filing of the grievance does not suspend the time within which to pursue any other available remedies that the aggrieved may have. The Board of Selectmen or Town Manager shall forward a copy of the grievance to the Agricultural Commission or its agent, which shall review and facilitate the resolution of the grievance, and report its recommendations to the referring Town of Dracut authority within an agreed upon time frame. The Board of Health, except in cases of imminent danger or public health risk, shall forward a copy of the grievance to the Agricultural Commission or its agent, which shall review and facilitate the resolution of the grievance, and report its recommendations to the Board of Health within an agreed upon time frame.

Section 6 Severability Clause

If any part of this Bylaw is for any reason held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such decision shall not affect the remainder of this Bylaw. The Town of Dracut hereby declares the provisions of this Bylaw to be severable.
